NEED A NEW IDEA?

Kancamagus Highway

- Start your tour at The Flume Visitor Center in Franconia Notch. Great displays, a free 20 minute High Definition DVD about the area, coffee shop, and a variety of New England gifts.
- Leave the coach behind and get a spectacular view from above the treeline on the Mt. Washington Auto Road. Daily guided tours by van for groups. Enjoy lunch at their restaurant with a great view.
- Lunch at the top Enjoy lunch at the summit on Cannon Mountain (access via aerial tram), Mt. Washington (Auto Road or Cog Railway) or Loon Mountain (gondola).
- Admission is free at the Mount Washington Observatory Weather Discovery Center in North Conway, where you'll find hands-on science and weather displays from the site of the "world's worst weather!" Experience some of the world's highest winds!
- The White Mountains Trail, a National Scenic Byway, loops through the White Mountains, offering easy access to truly spectacular views and many of the region's most popular attractions.
- Wildlife interpretive programs with afternoon tea option or lunch option at Lost River Gorge in Kinsman Notch.
- Moose Tours—also known as Moose "Safaris"—are available through operators in Lincoln, Gorham, and North Conway, New Hampshire.
- Trains The Conway Scenic Railroad offers special excursions for groups of 25+ that combine authentic rail travel with naturalist programs. The Mount Washington Cog Railway features a biodiesel locomotive that reduces emissions and minimizes the use of fossil fuels at this popular White Mountains attraction.

Moose Tours

The Basin (FNSP)

The Conway Scenic and Hobo Railroads offer lunch and dinner, while the Café Lafayette Dinner Train offers gourmet dinner excursions.

- Soft adventure options The state-of-the-art Appalachian Mountain Club Outdoor Recreation Center in Crawford Notch. Alpine Adventures, Bretton Woods, Loon Mountain, and Wildcat Mountain offer exciting Zipline Tours—soar over trees and enjoy breathtaking scenery!
